June 30, 1956

The Whip-Poor-Will Club met at the home of Mrs John Bowman with Dorothy Hummer as hostess, Sat. June 30th.

Our president, Elena Roup called the meting to order by reading an original poem. Twenty six members answered roll calls. Guests were Mrs Donald Edwards of Oxford, Lucile Woodward, Burlington and Lenita Chadima of Fairfax.

The calendar committee presented the members with a very attractive fan shaped calendar for the new year. The president announced she thought we should all keep in mind at the close of the club year if we know of any changes that would effect the new club calendar to make them known before the calendars are made up. Elena also thanked the committee for their work.

The Treasurer reported a Bal. on hand at the end of the year of $28.27. Five dues paid, leaving a Bal. on hand of $33.27.

Erna Novak presented a bill of $3.65 for the calendars, Hattie Novy - $3.06 invitations for the Mother's Day Picnic and Ruth Linnger $2.82 for a new secretary's book. Effie Myers moved the bills be paid, seconded by Helen Davis. Motion carried.

The next meting will be at the home of Mrs Richard Veldhouse, 312-23rd St. Drive, Cedar Rapids with her mother, Mrs Mabel Stoner as hostess.

Erma Novak made the motion we adjourn; seconded by Erma Sentman. Motion carried.

The meeting was then turned over to the new entertainment committee: Mabel Stoner and Georgie Zeller. Georgie introduced Lenita Chadima who spent two months in Finland last summer. Lenita went to Europe with a group of students under the auspices of the American Field Service. Slides were shown of her trip from the time she left New York, of the boats, docks, trains, railway stations, even the bicycles which were the only means of transportation at the country homes where she lived the first month. She explained the first month she stayed with a family in the country, the second month with a family in the city. We were introduced to all the members of both families, even the dog.

There are many lakes in the farming areas and the scenery was beautiful. It was very interesting to compare their way of life and farming with ours. Lenita was certainly impressed with the fact they are never in a hurry. What they get done today, O.K. The rest they'll do tomorrow. On their return trip they visited Paris.

The hostess used the club colors - Pink and Green for a delicious and refreshing lunch.

Ruth Linnger - Secretary

NORTH LIBERTY — The Whip-poor-will club observed its 59th anniversary with the annual Mother's day picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Novak Friday. Seventy-five members and guests attended.

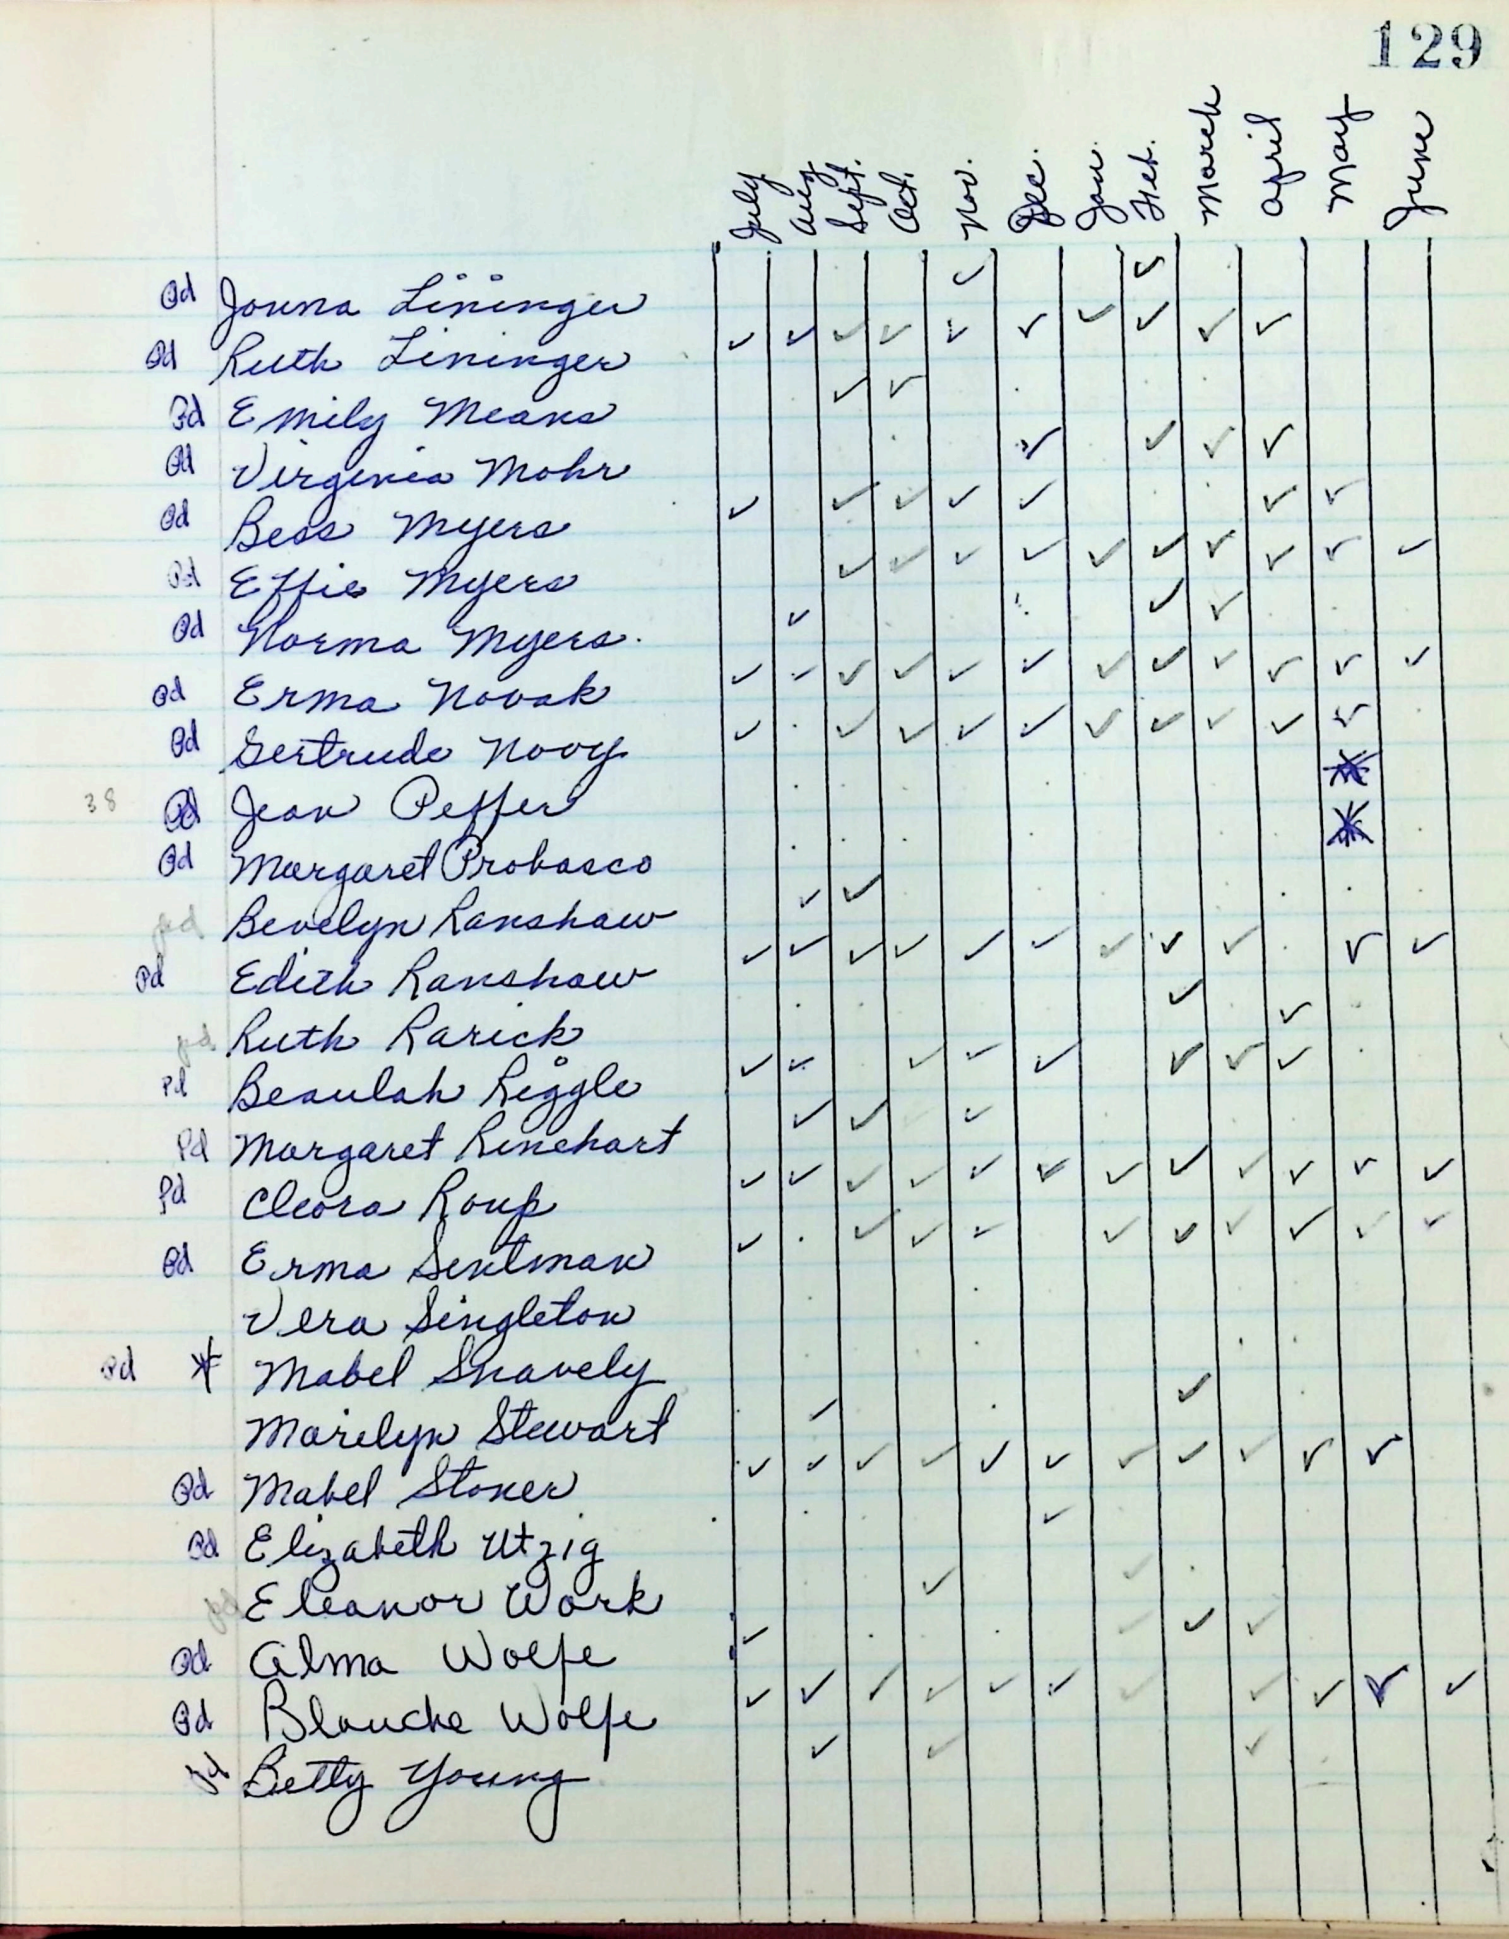

Those from out of the state were Mrs. Eva Albright Pooley of St. James, Minn., who became a member in 1903 and her daughter and grand-daughters, Mrs. Marguerite Hauberg, Jan and Mugsy of Northfield, Minn. Others were Mrs. Charles Colony and children, Cynthia, Paul, Scott and Lynnette of Albany, Ore., Miss Kathleen Overholt of New York City and Mrs. Alta Eldeen of Gettysburg, S.D.

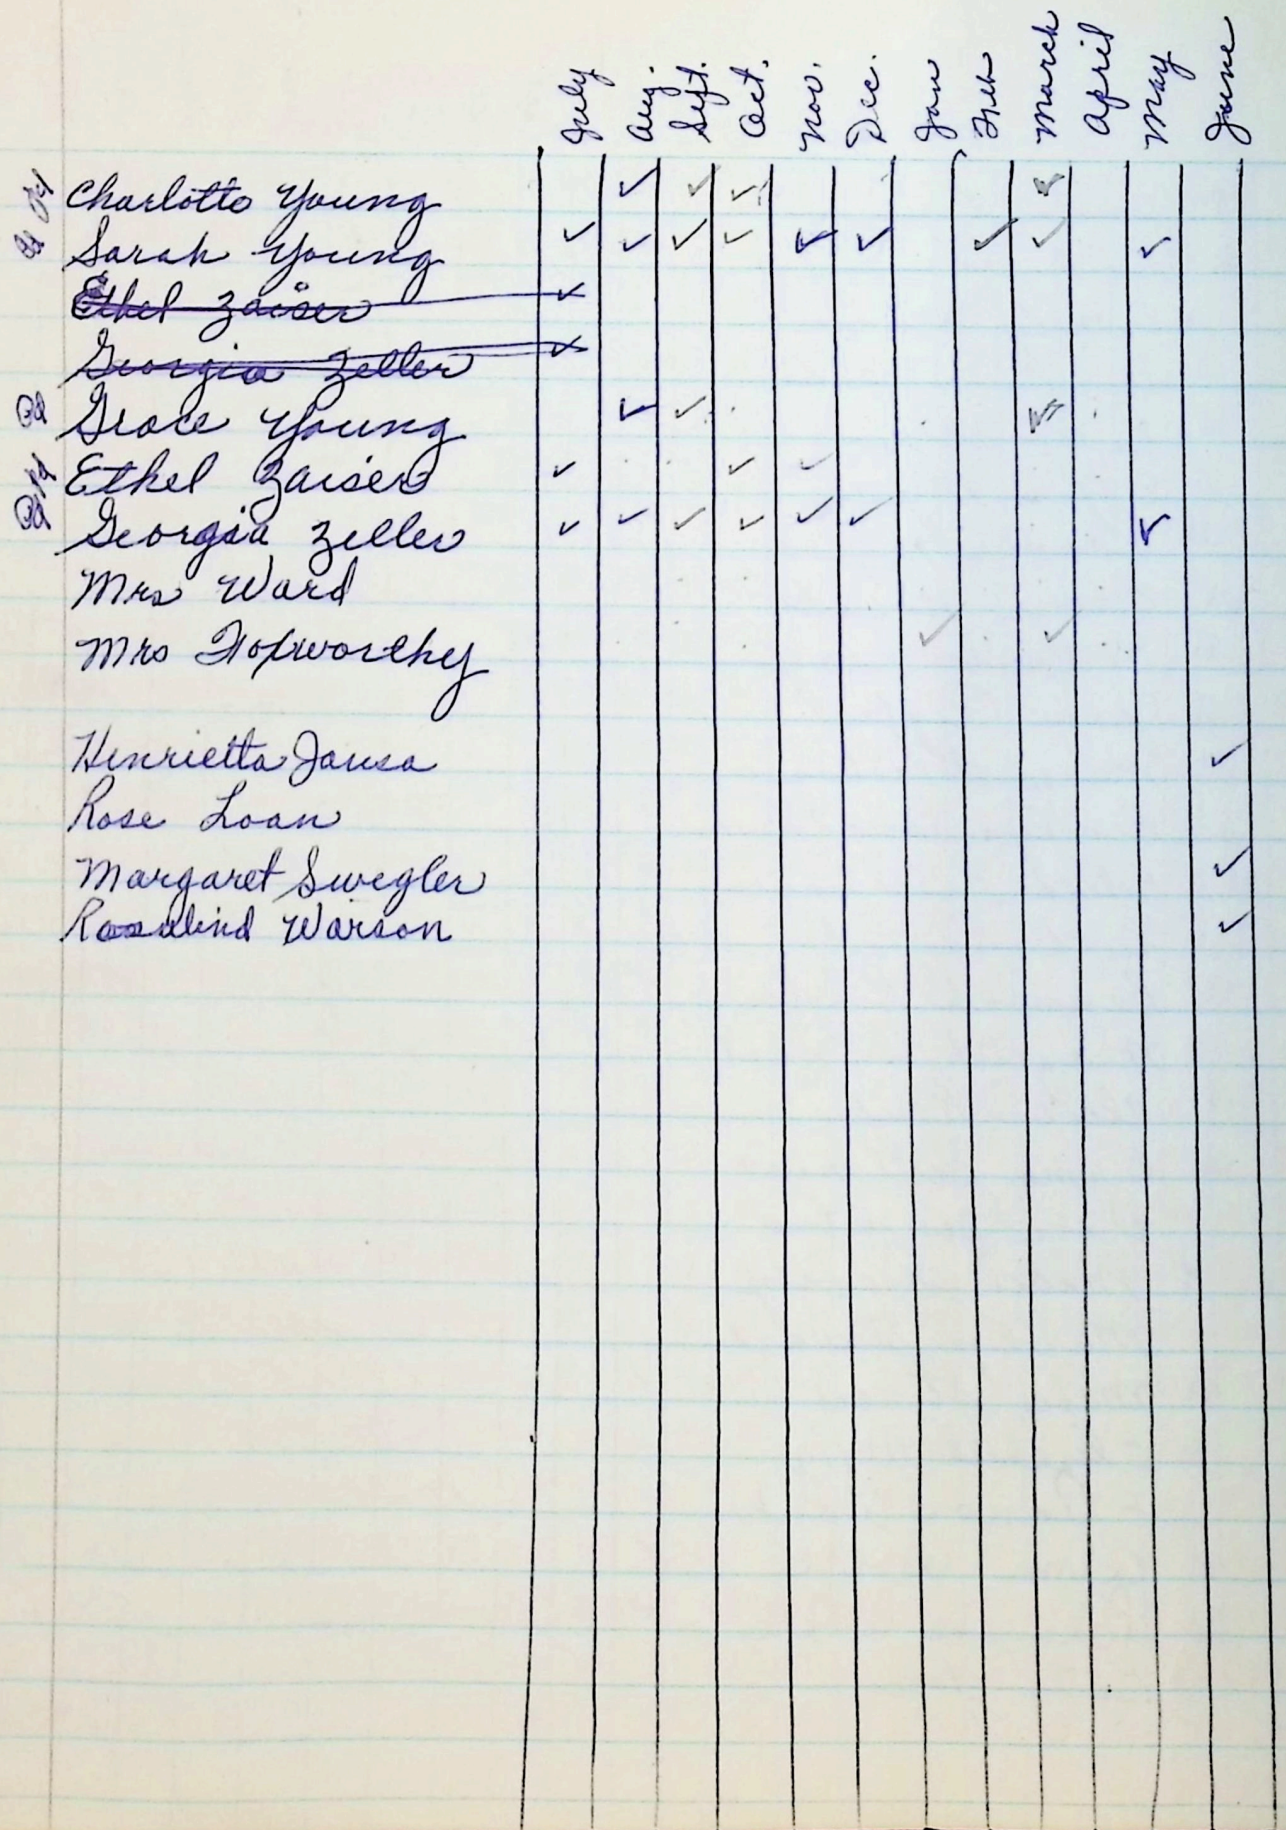

A co-operative dinner was served at noon. In the afternoon Mrs. Emil Novy was in charge of the program which consisted of a "Tribute to Mothers" by Mrs. Frank A. Colony and "Ten Commandments for Mothers" by Mrs. Homer Riggle. The memorial service for deceased members and mothers was given by Mrs. Byron Coglan and Miss Mary Wolfe. Those in memoriam were Mrs. Moreland Colony, Mrs. W. W. Young, Mrs. R. H. Alt, Mrs. J. H. Kier and Mrs. George Wright.

The next part of the program was a program reminiscent of the last day of school during the little red school house days. The teacher was Mrs. Frank Zeller, and the pupils Ruth Colony, Sarah Young, Mabel Stoner, Elma Colony, Irene Coglan, Nell Fuhrmeister, Ellen Colony, Bonita Colony, Gertie Novy and Jonna Lininger.

Whip-Poor Will Party Oct 26, 1963

The Whip-poor-will Club entertained their husbands at a costume party Oct. 26 at the home of Mr & Mrs Jerry Probasco.

As we entered we were introduced to some strange characters and objects such as shaking hands with a ghost, touching the eye balls, brains, liver and dipping your toes in the blood. Of course, there were some odd ones attending the party too. Old Mother Hubbard in her night cap and night gown carrying her dog, the sad faced fellow in his pajamas, the one with the badges who might have been Matt Dillon (had he been taller), oh yes, and his horse. The girls in middies and bloomers, the tramp on his way to Missouri, also the one in his night shirt besides the clown and some of the biggest noses I've seen in a long time. There were a few who didn't come in costume but they were soon taken care of too. The witches were howling that night. Prizes for the best costumes went to Mr & Mrs Jakey Colony and Mr & Mrs Emil Novy. Several games were conducted by the entertainment comm. Erma Bentman, Edith Ramhap, Alma Wolfe, Ellen Colony, Elona Roup and Vera Lauer. Passing the orange, Witches poison, hat and stunts. The gals rode the witches broom to choose partners for refreshments.

Pictures of ~~the~~ club parties and picnics of yester-years were shown by Margaret Probasco.

Doughnuts, orange jello salad, cider and coffee was served by the refreshment comm ~~f~~ Gertie Nony, Blanche Wolfe, Bess Myers and Ruth Lindinger. Thirty-two attended and I'm sure all would agree we had a wonderful time.

Whip-Poor-Will Party - Oct. 9, 1964

The Whip-poor-will members entertained their husbands at a fall costume party on Oct. 9th at the home of Mr and Mrs Jerry Probasco.

We were greeted at the door by Jack and Jill carrying a pail of water (Jerry and Margaret). Of course, it was an odd combination of guests they greeted. Little Boy Blue, Mary had a little lamb, the ghosts, and that fellow from the Ozarks with the corn cob pipe, little brown jug and the old gun. I think he must have belonged to one of the feudin' clans. Then there were those Smothers brothers, Robert Marvin and so many in the nighties, pajamas and robes we wondered if they had misunderstood and thought it was a slumber party. Prizes were given to Marianne Colony (the ghosts) and Edgar Colony (the feudin' hillbilly) for the best costumes.

Betty Riggle conducted a couple of contests "Dumb, Dumb Spelling and a Bubble Gum Contest. We also had a Punkin Toss and a Passing Game. To close the entertainment Ruth Linginger read a poem - Thanksgiving.

"His" and "Hers" packages were passed by Cleona Romp and Betty Riggle and in this way we selected partners for the refreshments.

At this time we were served a delicious breakfast by some of those people in their nighties and robes. Rolls, kolaches, doughnuts, cereal, coffee and juice was the breakfast menu. Emma Novak, Erma Sentman, Elma Colony and Ellen Colony were the refreshments committee.

Twenty-one attended and if laughter is an indication I can surely report everyone had an enjoyable time.

Mothers Day Picnic - 1966.

The annual Mothers Day Picnic of the Whip-poor-Wills was held on Sat. June 18th at the home of Mrs. Dale Riggle. A delicious picnic dinner was served at 12:30.

The Colony introduced the Fremont Homemakers of Lone Tree who presented an interesting and different style show. For example the bar coat, had pictures of cars all over it; the check dress was adorned with real blank checks, and the "fashion news" frock consisted of newspapers clipped and sewed together.

The box suit for traveling was just that a card board box. A spring coat (decorated with bare-colored small springs and a "balloon dress" - complete with inflated balloons, also a combed cotton dress, complete with a variety of combs - large and small.

The house dress trimmed with pictures of houses and the tea dress featuring real tea bags.

Of course there was a June bride pulling a toy train (for the going away trip) A most practical touch was the scoop attached to a string around her neck to catch the rice.

Then came the granny dress and last but certainly not the least amusing was the latest in night wears. The narrator was attired in a spring and summer dress decorated with loads of artificial flowers.

One of the group provided highly appropriate background music at the organ.

Minutes of the last club picnic were read by the secy and approved Several letters were read from former members and Mothers.

Helen Davis and Nell Fuhrmeister had charge of the Memorial service A white rose was placed in a vase for Miss Grace George, Mrs Lester Smith, Mrs Myrtle Green and Mrs Lily Gordon who passed away during the last year.

Peg Colony read "Nobody knows but Mother" and "Lets give Mom breakfast in bed". Betty Riggle read a poem "Mom"

Mrs Burrows Smith

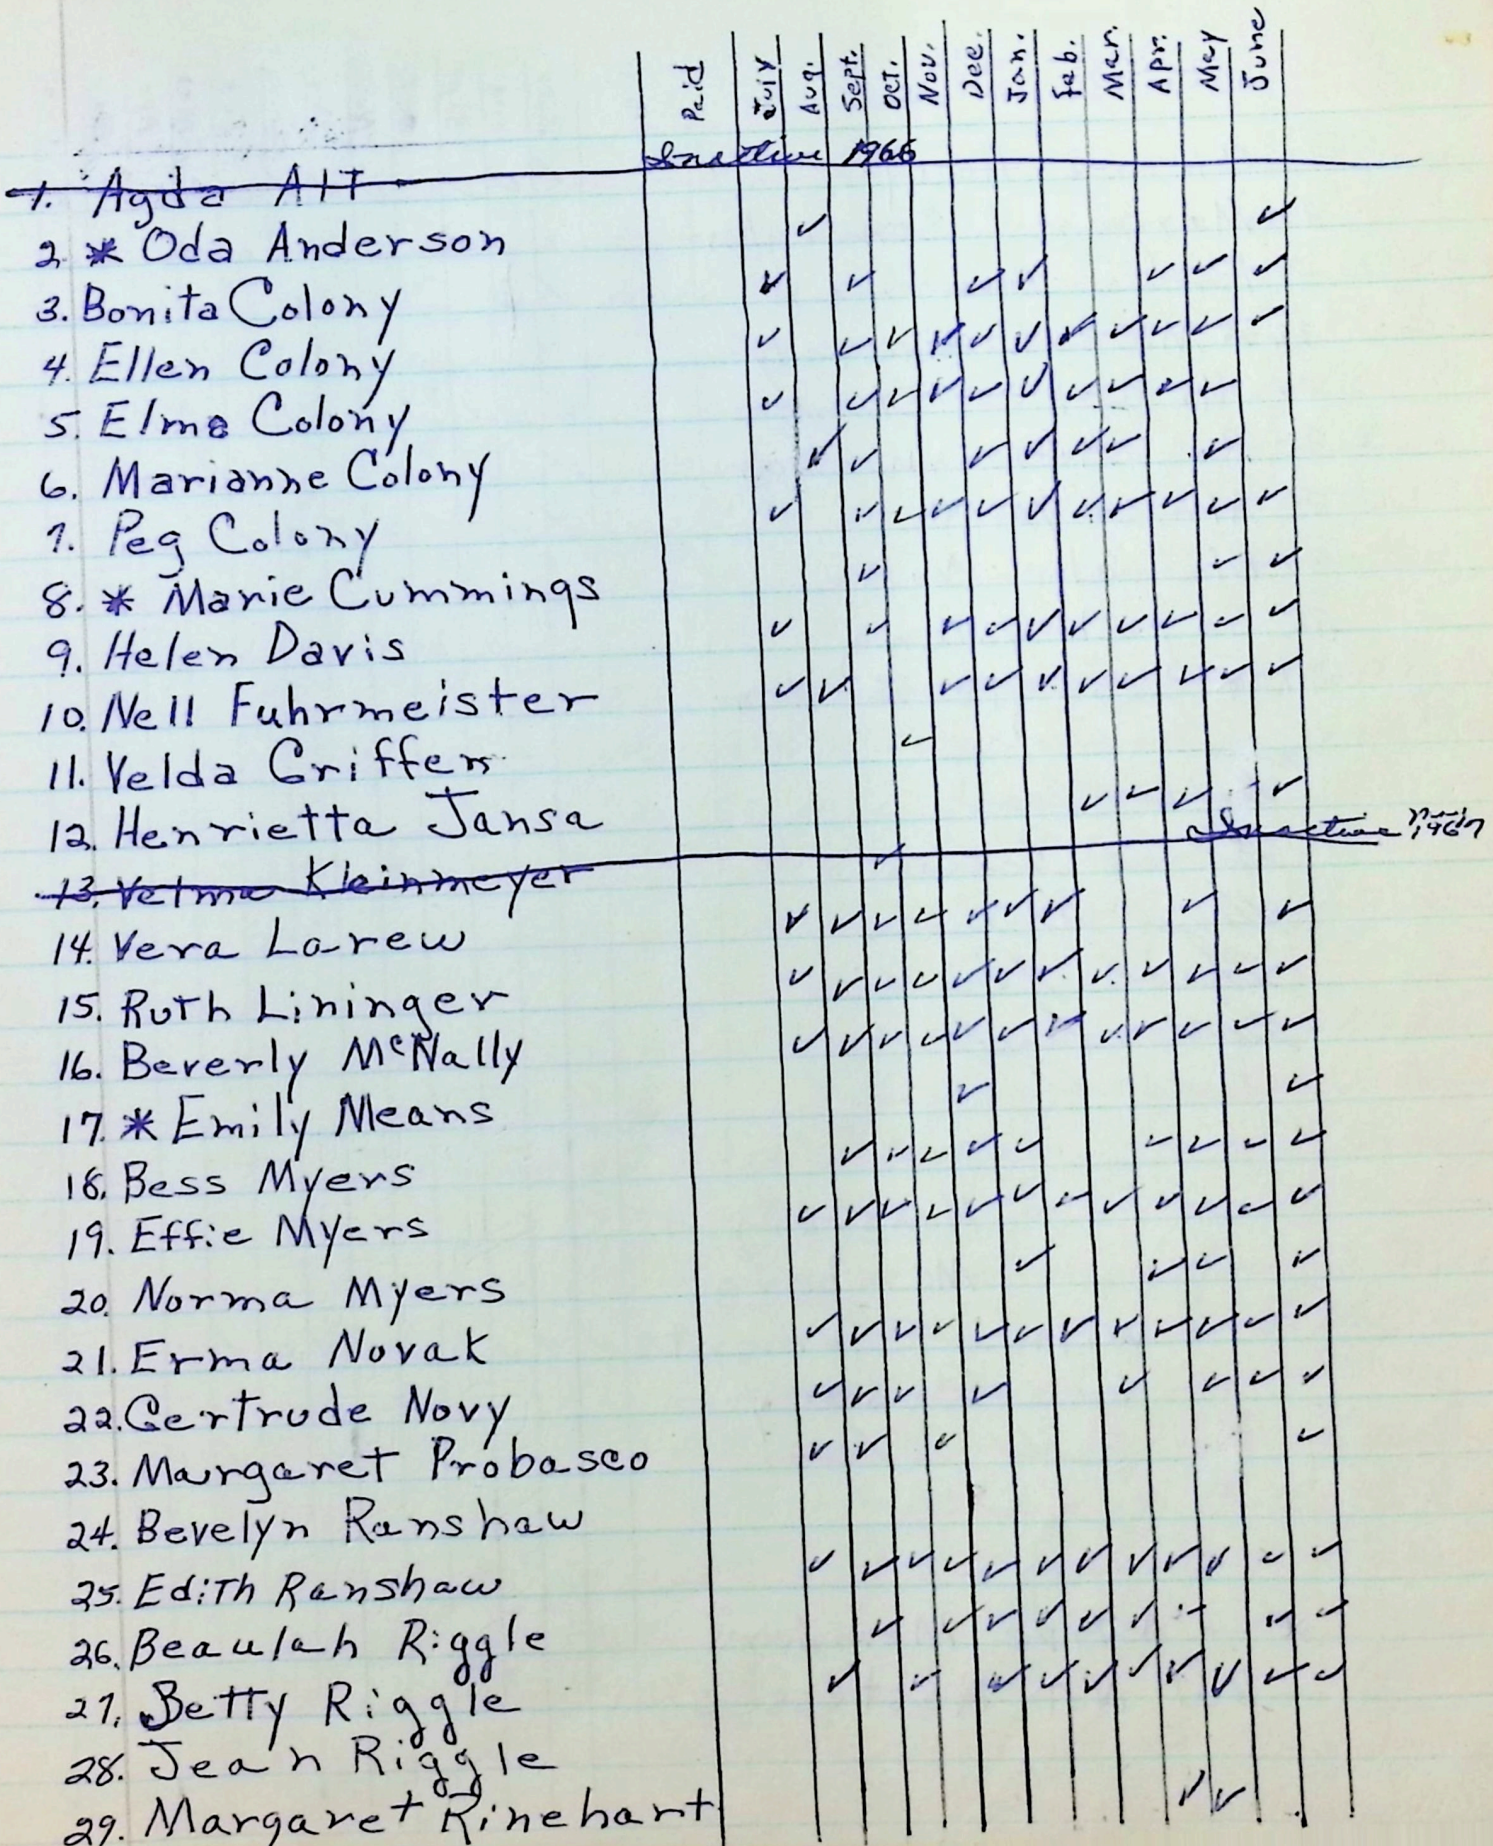

Mrs Frank Colony

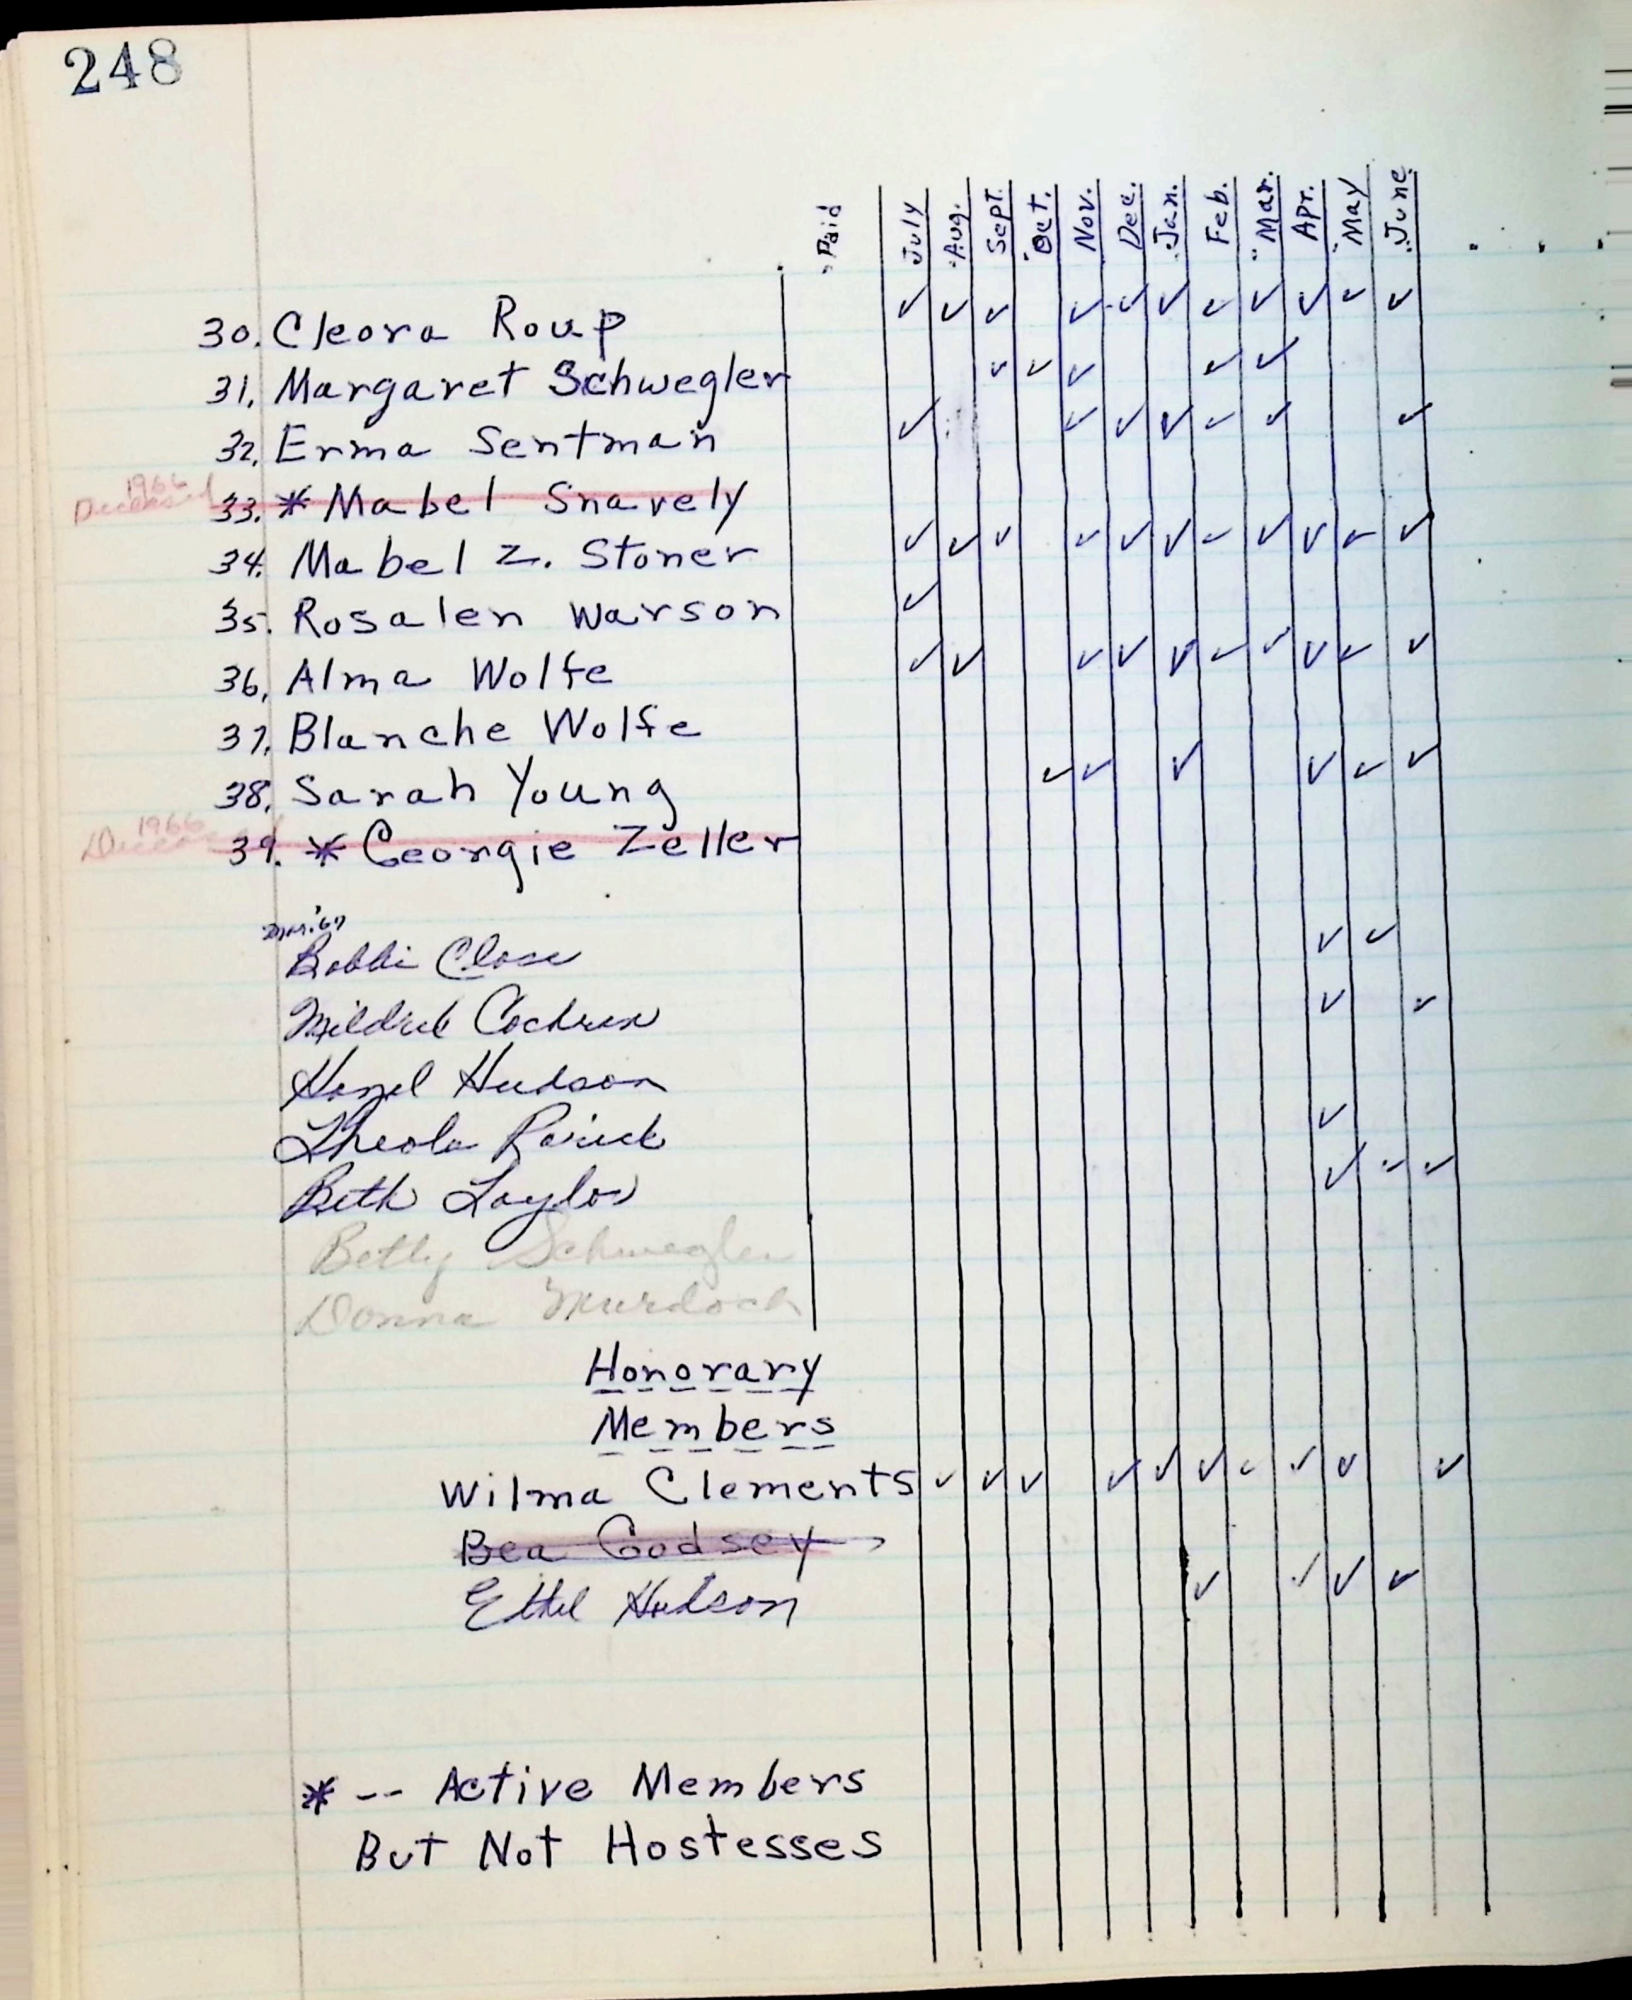

Mrs Ella Neitderhiser, the oldest Mother present was presented a carnation - the club flowers.

42 persons signed the register.

Her pupils numbered between 30 and 35. She was allowed only three leaves during the school year. At Thanksgiving time she visited Taiwan, at Christmas she went to Manila, Saigon and Singapore. She visited a rubber plantation, a tin mine and saw pewter made. At Easter she flew to Japan on a sight seeing tour.

This coming school year she will live at Balboa Island and teach at New Port Beach, Calif. She spent the past summers in California and returned home last week.

The next club meeting will be Oct. 10th with Mrs. Kenneth Kleinmyer.

Guests were Mrs. Probasco, Mrs. Fred Cochran, the Misses Mary and Elizabeth Clements, Mrs. Byran Coglan, Mrs. Don Marvin of Altoona, Mrs. Gale Gritton and Miss Judy Gritton.

notes were read from families of Hattie Davis and Walter Schrader.

Motion was made by Erma Novak and seconded by Erma Gentman that the August meeting be held on the evening of August 6th at 8:00 p.m. in the home of Erma Novak. At this time, initiation of new members will be held if any of those contacted desire to join. Word has been received from Agnes Wagner, Theola Parick, and Doris Rath declining membership at this time.

Discussion was held concerning club calendars which will most likely be ready for distribution at the next meeting.

Evelyn Denzin, Shirley Hurlbut, Agnes Hurlbut, Marianna Myers and Roswitha Myers have asked that their club status be changed from active to inactive.

Due to an auto accident involving the girls 4-H Club, Willing Workers, who were to put on a demonstration for whip-poor-will, "This and That" Chit-Chat was substituted. Among other interesting topics, Elma Colony's report of her recent trip through the West was enjoyed.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Beverly McNally, Sec'y.

September 10, 1966

Whip-poor-will Club held the September meeting on the 10th at the home of Velma Kleinsorge. Twenty-one members and three guests were present.

Peg Colony called the meeting to order.

Minutes were read and corrected.

Betty Riggle reported a $9.50 balance on hand. Dues of $5.00 and a donation of $1.00 from Irene Coplon now bring the balance to $15.50. Betty also read letters from Goodwill Industries thanking us for the contribution made to them and from the Fremont Homemakers expressing thanks for the gift to them after their performance at the Mothers' Day Picnic.

Ellen Colony presented a bill of $3.00 for materials for club calendars and Peg Colony had a bill of $1.20 for two carnations presented at Mothers' Day picnic. Clara Poup made motion that these bills be paid and it was seconded by Gertie Young.

Discussion was held concerning our next meeting which is to be held at Elkhaden in the home of Velda Griffin. It was decided that we would go on the 15th of October, take potluck dinner, use cars for transportation, and try to arrive at approximately 11:30 a.m. The secretary is to write and inform Velda of our decisions.

Meeting was adjourned and served by Program Committee. Edith Rankow told of her trip to the Eastern States and passing around picture postcards and clippings made the trip more interesting.

Several musical numbers were presented. Mary Clements sang and played the autoharp. Lyndee and Ruth Colony sang a duet accompanied by Bonita Colony. This was followed by a duet by Elsie and Bonita Colony, a solo by Lyndee Colony and duet by Lyndee and Kay Colony.

Dessert was served by the hostess.

Club Members Attend Meeting At Elkader

NORTH LIBERTY — The following members of the Whip-Poor-Will club: Mrs. Ervin Linnger, Mrs. Alexander Young of Iowa City, Mrs. Lee Ranshaw, Mrs. Logan Myers, Mrs. Effie Myers, Mrs. Homer Riggle, Mrs. Joe McNally, Mrs. Martin Schwegler, Mrs. White Larew, Mrs. Edger Colony, Mrs. Jerry Probasco, Mrs. Milo Novak, Mrs. Frank Colony, and Mrs. Frank E. Colony motored to Elkader Saturday and met with Mrs. Velda Griffin who formerly lived in this community. A pot-luck dinner was held at noon.

The group made a tour of an old opera house open in 1903 on which restoration is being made. They also enjoyed the fall sights.

Mrs. Frank E. Colony, the president had charge of the business meeting.

Mrs. White Larew of the entertainment committee, had charge of the entertainment. A contest "Know Your Neighbor" was held with each one describing a club member in verse. Mrs. Joe McNally and Mrs. Frank E. Colony tied with Mrs. McNally winning the prize.

A paper on "Did You Know" with some facts, figures and hints written by Mrs. Carl Roup, was read by Mrs. White Larew. Mrs. Roup was unable to attend because of a recent fracture of her wrist.

The next meeting will be November 5th with Mrs. White Larew as hostess.

October 15, 1966

Fourteen club members journeyed to the home of Velda Griffin in Elkader for the October meeting. The scenic fall beauty and colors were enjoyed while traveling. One guest, Jerrine Bissell, a neighbor of Velda's was present.

Ray Colony called the meeting to order and minutes were read by the secretary.

Beaulah Riggle read the treasurer's report in the absence of the treasurer. Balance on hand was $15.50. After collecting $2.00 in dues, paying bills ($3.00 to Ellen Colony and $1.20 to Ray Colony) the balance is now $13.10. New bills presented were Beaulah Riggle, 75¢ for stencil and materials for programs; Elmo Colony $1.50 for roses for Mabel Snively and Cleora Ramp. Also Elmo Colony $6.00 memorial for Georgie Yeller. Ellen Colony made the motion we pay the bills and it was seconded by Edith Renshaw.

Vera Larew informed the club that Cleora Ramp knows a Mrs. Williams of the Flower and Garden Club of Cedar Rapids who would be glad to speak to the club for a fee of $10.00. Discussion was held and it was agreed upon that in order that more people benefit by such a speaker Cleora see if Mrs. Williams would consider reserving the date of the club picnic for such an event.

The motion was made by Ellen Colony that we hold the annual club picnic on Monday, June 19, as the usual date, the 18th, falls on a Sunday. Erma Novak seconded the motion.

Meeting was adjourned and potluck dinner enjoyed by all after which each member took his turn in giving a poem or verse describing another and the audience guessed who was described. An entertaining, as well as useful "Did you Know" was read by Vera Larew. It was prepared by Cleora Rapp who was unable to attend because of a broken wrist.

The next meeting we are to bring one or several things we have made or are working on in the home to show the other members.

Before leaving for home Velda inquired from the man who has in charge of an old opera house in downtown Elbaba whether we could tour it. Permission was granted and we were given the tour. It was very interesting as the opera house is in the process of being restored and is being used for meetings and plays. It originally opened for business in 1903.

November 5, 1966

Twenty-three members answered roll call at the November meeting held in the home of Vera Screw. Guests present were Jessie Sisinger, Bobbie Close, Jolen and Grace Young and Mrs. Mae Ewalt, sister of Vera Screw.

Meeting was called to order, minutes read and approved and treasurer's report given. Balance on hand as of November 1st was $12.10. Dues collected amounted to $3.00. Bills were paid in the amounts of $6.00, $1.50, and .75 leaving a present balance of $7.85.

Elva Colony presented a bill of $6.00 memorial to family of Mabel Gravely. Ruth Sisinger made the motion this bill be paid and it was seconded by Alma Wolfe.

Contributing to CARE was brought up and discussed by the group. Gertrude Hoy made the motion that we contribute as other years and it was seconded by Bell Fuhrmeister. Motion was made by Erma Seitman that we take up a collection during this month's meeting and vote in order to make this committment, giving $5.00 and placing over and above amounts in the treasury. This was seconded by Ellen Colony.

The subject of the possibility of securing Mrs. Williams of the Flower and Garden Club of Cedar Rapids as a speaker for the Club's Annual Picnic again was brought up presenting the problem of volunteers for the program committee for this occasion Gloria Roup volunteered for this committee and will proceed with the action.

Gift exchange for next month was discussed and Elma Colony made the motion we exchange miscellaneous gifts identifying the giver and this motion was seconded by Betty Riggle.

Those who thanked the club for kindnesses, gifts, and remembrances at times of illnesses and distress were Mrs. Clements and Clora Roup (who passed around a get-well card she received from Italy). Betty Riggle read a "thank-you" note from the Rayment Crawley family.

Pictures of the 1949 club picnic were turned over to the club for safekeeping by Gertie Young. They had been in possession of Georgie Miller.

The business meeting was closed and Ray Colony gave the quote, "Every man has something he can do better than anybody else -- he can read his own handwriting."

Everyone took part in the program that followed by bringing from home projects of sewing, crafts, knitting and many other interesting things completed or in the process of completion to show the group.

Edith Parshow spoke on Padre Island in the Gulf of Mexico which she had visited several years ago. Padre Island has an interesting history, is an ideal place for Beach Combers and is reached by a

North Liberty Club Meets in McNally Home

NORTH LIBERTY — The Whip-poor-will Club met with Mrs. Joe McNally as hostess Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Frank E. Colony, the president, had charge of the business meeting. Twenty-one members answered roll call.

Each one is to bring candy to the next meeting as boxes will be packed for service men. It was announced that Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wiley well known in this community, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary January 15th. Their address is: 1209 Orange, McAllen, Texas 78501.

The new program committee, Mrs. Edgar Colony and Mrs. Dale Riggle had charge of entertainment. Mrs. Colony talked on the month of January, its flower, noted happenings, celebrations, and described the meaning of the month in different localities and noted club members who had birthdays in January.

Mrs. Riggle read four poems. Mrs. Frank A. Colony led the group in singing including a number of parodies. Guests were Mrs. James Hudson and Mrs. Graydon Shearer.

The next meeting will be February 4th with Mrs. Emil Novy as hostess

January 7, 1967

Inclement weather did not discourage 21 members and two guests from attending the Whip-Poor-Will Club meeting at the home of Beverly McNally.

President, Peg Colony, presided over the meeting. Minutes were read and approved. Treasurer's report was given as balance, $12.35. Income of $1.00 for dues, $3.45 collection from a previous month and bills paid in the amount of $5.00 to Cox and 25¢ postage make the balance now $11.55.

Elsie Koup reported Mrs. Williams of the Flower and Garden Club would receive June 19th to speak at our club picnic.

Elsa Wolfe made the motion that at the next meeting as in previous years we send Candy and write letters to those in the service of our country and this was seconded by Effie Meyers. Everyone is to bring individually wrapped homemade candy and hard candy to fill in to the next meeting to be packed in 2 lb coffee cans. Elsa Colony will be in charge of obtaining addresses and Erma Novak is obtaining coffee cans.

Ruth Springer made the motion we vote on prospective new members in February instead of June and initiate in March instead of August, or at a month suitable to the individual. This motion was seconded by Ellen Colony. Names are to be turned in to the Membership Committee.

The new Program Committee Ellen Colony and Betty Ringgle had charge of entertainment. Ellen talked on the month of January, its flower, noted happenings, celebrations and of those who have birthdays during this month. Betty read several poems. Mrs Elva Colony led the group in singing.

Whip-poor-will Club met at the home of Henrietta Jarosa with 24 members and several guests present.

Meeting was called to order and minutes read and approved.

A "Thank-you" was read from the family of John Fisher. Letters of Chris Fedrickson and Bill Lanehow were read declining membership to the club. Also letters of acceptance from Bobbie Close and Betty Sowder were read; however, Betty is unable to attend the meeting of initiation. The secretary reported being contacted by Mildred Cochran, Beth Taylor and Donna Burdock who wish to become members; however Donna Burdock is unable to make the initiation meeting. Anne Pennington and Dale Martin decline membership. Theola Pierce and Hazel Hudson who had been voted on in previous years indicated their desire to become member. Letters from the following people to whom candy had been sent were read: Mat Colbert, Gerald Von Stein, Rosemary and Tom Sentmon, Donald Dean, Clifford Green, Sandy Anderson, and Dean Brown.

The treasurer reported a balance of $11.55 but after paying $5.50 for flowers and vase, receiving $5.75 collected from members for postage for candy; plus $1.00 received from Mrs. Schaan for postage; the present balance is $11.80.

Ruth Linnigen reported she personally mailed several candy boxes for which she took care of postage, herself and Helen Davis has several boxes yet to send and she, likewise, will donate the postage.

Clara Roup presented a bill of $3.06 for carnations and Edna Colony a bill of $15.00 for postage on candy boxes. Ruth Linnigen made the motion we pay these bills as soon as money is available in the treasurery. This was seconded by Erma Novak.

Bey Colony thanked members for cards received at the passing of Frank E.'s father.

The initiation committee (Clara Roup, Erma Statton, and Ellen Colony filling in for Gertie Novy) conducted initiation of the following girls: Hazel Hudson, Bobbi Close, Mildred Cochran, Beth Taylor, and Theola Patrick. After leaving the room and being briefed, the girls returned, hunted through suitcases for appropriate costumes befitting nursery rhyme characters. The club soon discovered Hazel was now "Mother Hubbard"; Bobbi, "Jack Be Nimble"; Mildred, "The Crooked Man who walked a Crooked Mile"; Theola, "Jack Spratt"; and Beth, "Jack Spratt's wife." Constitution and standing rules were read by the secretary. The president lit the candles of Character, Knowledge, and Friendship held by initiation committee and each new member was presented a pink Carnation.

Next meeting is to be at Home of Donna Reyes. The hostess served a delicious dessert. Lois McCabe.

Slides of Chile Are Shown at Club Meeting

NORTH LIBERTY — The Whip poor will club met Saturday with Mrs. Lloyd Myers as hostess. The president, Mrs. Frank E. Colony had charge of the business meeting. Twenty-eight members answered roll call.

Guests were Mrs. Lucille Albright, Mrs. Johnnie Myers, Mrs. Mike Myers and son, Mrs. Bruce Young, Mrs. Emil Trout Jr., Mrs. Cesar Farell and daughter Virginia and Miss Janet Myers.

Mrs. Edgar Colony and Mrs. Dale Riggle had charge of the entertainment. A silent auction was held with a goodly number of items and buyers.

Mrs. Fred Cochran gave an interesting report and showed slides of her recent two months visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. (Dorothy) Walter Sahr of Santiago, Chile. She was assisted by Mrs. Edgar Colony. She reports that the soil of Chile is very stoney and yet corn and vegetables are produced with some irrigation. Mrs. Sahr is a teacher in the Santiago College, a school for girls and Mr. Sahr is a member of an importing firm. She also reported that the traffic lights in Santiago were products from Moline, Ill.

Refreshments in keeping with April Fool's day were served from a decorated table with Mrs. John Myers and Miss Janet Myers pouring at the tea and coffee service.

The next meeting will be May 1 with Mrs. Effie Myers as hostess. There will be a flower exchange.

April 1, 1967

North Liberty Club Holds Recent Meeting

NORTH LIBERTY — The Whip-poor-will club met Saturday afternoon with Mrs. Jerry Probasco. The president, Mrs. Carl Roup, had charge of the business meeting. Twenty-four members answered roll call. The calender committee, Mrs. L. L. Stoner, Mrs. Fred Cochran and Mrs. Marvin Schwegler, handed out the new calendars for the year. Miss Betty Schwegler was initiated and taken into the club.

Mrs. Floyd Wolfe and Mrs. J. C. Fuhrmeister, the new program committee, for the first six months had charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Wolfe introduced Mrs. Verna Harris and Mrs. Snyder of Iowa City, who were representing the Iowa City Woman's Club. The club is sponsoring a "Travelers Market" project to help make money for the Goodwill Building program. This market is to be held Wednesday Oct. 11th from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. in various homes and public places. They explained the project and also showed some of the hand made items that will be for sale, on the above date.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Harley Probasco of Mesa, Ariz., Mrs. James Wilkins and infant daughter, Christine, of Mt. Vernon and Mrs. Vivian Schroeder of Fredericksburg.

The next meeting will be August 5th with Mrs. Floyd Wolfe as hostess.

Ellen Colony made the motion that we pay the above bills and it was seconded by Margaret Schwegler.

7-25-67 wrote Blanch Wolfe & Velda Griffin

Evelyn Ranshaw has notified the club that she wishes to become inactive. Blanche Wolfe and Velda Griffin will be Contacted by the secretary to find out their desired status because of delinquent dues.

Vira Lorew passed on the message from Sarah Young that cards, visits, and flowers to the hospital were very much appreciated.

Mabel Stonel, Chairman of the new calendar Committee, passed out the new calendars for the year.

August 5th hostess will be Alma Wolfe instead of Evelyn Forshow.

Because of the absence of Dona Murdock in hospital, her initiation ceremonies will be held with the next group to come in. Initiation was held for Betty Schweglen. Candles of character, knowledge and friendship were lit and the club flower presented to Betty and Elora. Betty was given a box of material and pins and created an interesting frock for her mother as part of the ceremonies.

Alma Wolfe and Jill Fuhrmeister, the new Program Committee, had charge of entertainment. Verne Harris and Mrs. Snyder of Iowa City represented the Iowa City Women's Club and enlightened the club members on the Jewelers Market, a project for the Goodwill Building Program. Crafts to be made and sold at this project were shown.

Refreshments in keeping with 4th of July holiday were served by the hostess.

Respectfully yours
Secretary

Cast was Maggie, Margaret Schmaglu; aunt Lulu, Mildred Cochran; Maggies married daughter, Ellen, Ellen Colony; a neighbor, Angela, Elma Colony; Maggies teen age daughter, Lula Belle, Ruth Taylor. This was a very amusing sketch to say the least.

The president thanked all Committees for their assistance.

A token of remembrance was presented to Lovely McNally due to moving to another state. (Alabama)

Forty-four signed the register.

Thanking you —
not once but twice
Because you've been especially nice

Thank You Again!

I appreciate the "remembrance" at the Mother's Day Picnic.

Dear Friend,

The annual Whip-poor-will Club picnic honoring Mothers will be held at 12:30 P.M. on Tuesday, June 18, 1968 at the home of Mrs. Emil Novy.

The event will be a potluck dinner with the drink served by the committee. Please bring your own table service.

We hope you will be able to come and meet with old friends.

Yours truly,
Mrs. Joe McNally, Secretary
North Liberty, Iowa
